

Klein Collection of the History of Vincennes, Indiana, Finding Aid I: Alphabetic Index

Compiled by Allen Like, Byron R. Lewis Historical Library Assistant Vincennes University

The Klein Collection is a set of about 50 three-ring binders containing information from various sources such as historical books and documents, newspaper articles, pamphlets, booklets, personal notes and papers of George Klein (1921-2004). Klein was a Vincennes, Indiana, resident, former Knox County Clerk, and life member of the Vincennes Historical Society.

The Klein Collection is numbered from 100 to 7500; a paper slip index to the collection is available in Lewis Historical Library.

See Klein Collection Finding Aid II for a chronological index to a scrapbook of the publication titled "150th Anniversary of the Indiana Gazette," Special Edition of the Vincennes Sun-Commercial, Aug. 1, 1954, written and compiled by Addie McElfresh.

For access to the articles in the collection, or for photocopies, contact the Lewis Historical Library at (phone) 812-888-4330 or email rking@vinu.edu .
