

Brian Davis ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH

Coach Brian Davis is in his fourth season with the Trailblazers. During his previous three seasons, the Trailblazers have sent 11 players to the Division 1 level and Davis' efforts with the program have included recruiting, directing VU summer basketball camps, organizing the Inaugural Trailblazer Shootout, game and opponent scouting and coordinating the team's travel.

Davis was previously a coach at Lawrenceville and Robinson high schools in Illinois and at Paul Dunbar High School in Lexington, Kentucky. He was an integral part of the 2002 Robinson squad that assembled a 29-3 record and reached the Elite 8. Davis was also on the staffs of a number of prestigious basketball camps throughout the country, including camps at Indiana University and the University of Kentucky, as well as the Ron Felling Shooting Camps prior to joining the Vincennes staff.

As a player, Davis was a member of the 1995 All-North Egypt Conference Basketball Team while leading tradition-rich Lawrenceville (IL.) High School to two regional and conference championships. He then went on to attend Vincennes University and the University of Kentucky, earning a degree in health promotion with a minor in psychology.

He resides in Vincennes with his wife Jennifer, who is also employed at VU.

John Stooksbury ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH

Coach John Stooksbury is in his first season with the Trailblazers after working as an assistant coach at Motlow State (TN) Community College last season and spending two years in the same position at his alma mater, Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tennessee. He helped Motlow to a school-record 28-5 slate last winter and a Top-15 NJCAA ranking.

Stooksbury played two years at Motlow's rival Walters State Community College, helping the Senators to a Tennessee Junior College Athletic Association tournament title, along with two Top-10 national rankings each season. The Senators were also participants in the NJCAA Tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas. In 2002, Walters State finished eighth in the tournament.

Stooksbury transferred to Lincoln Memorial University to finish out his college basketball career. He graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing, and he completed his master's degree in business administration at Lincoln Memorial University in 2007.
