

David Ragland
HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

Coach David Ragland is in his first season at the Trailblazers' helm, after a three-year stint as an assistant.

During that time, the Trailblazers compiled a 79-20 record.

Prior to his arrival at VU, Ragland spent one season at Frank Phillips College in Borger, Texas, helping that program put together a school record 25-5 season.

As a player, Ragland was named Southern Indiana Player of the Year during his senior season at Harrison Harrison. He helped Harrison earn a 21-3 record, including a Class 4A semistate appearance. Ragland began his collegiate career at Missouri Southern State College in Joplin. During his freshman season, the Lions posted a 30-3 record and made it to the NCAA Division II Final Four.

Following his sophomore season at Missouri Southern, Ragland returned home to play for the University of Southern Indiana. The Screaming Eagles compiled a 47-14 record during his two seasons there.

Ragland resides in Vincennes with his wife, Annie, and daughter, Ava.

