

ACCOUNTING 5250
A Two-Year Program Leading to the A.A.S. Degree

This career program in accounting is specifically designed to prepare students for positions as junior accountants, accounting clerks, bookkeepers, accounting trainees, and office managers. The program balances the specialty in accounting with management, business law, and computer courses, in addition to the general education support courses. Accounting majors must obtain a minimum grade of C in each accounting course to receive the A.A.S. degree in Accounting.
