Our Presenter

Belinda McCliese was raised by Deaf parents in Virginia. As a '86 graduate of Gallaudet University and '87 graduate of Deaf

International Bible College, she pursued her MA degrees in Psychology Counseling and Pastoral Counseling at Trinity College of Graduate Studies. She currently serves as a licensed Marriage & Family Therapist/Deaf Service Coordinator in Orange County.

Currently, she serves as Spiritual Care Mentor of National Deaf Culture Fellowship of A/G.

The heart of her ministry is bringing Christ's healing to the wounded & broken hearts that lead to wholeness. In addition to her current preaching / teaching ministry, as a coach, she
