To file a complaint with the university, please complete and mail, email, or bring this form to the office listed above. Or, you may call the number above to make arrangements to meet with the Title IX Coordinator. If you are unable for any reason to complete this form and would like to make a verbal complaint, please call the contact listed above.

The university will use its best efforts to keep a complaint of discrimination confidential; however, the university has an obligation to investigate the complaint and during the course of the investigation may disseminate information concerning the complaint to those who have a need to know.

Please contact the Title IX Coordinator if you have any questions regarding the process for filing or investigating complaints of discrimination.

A victim of discrimination or harassment is encouraged to use the university's internal complaint process. Persons believing they have been discriminated against or harassed may seek assistance from government agencies including the Department of Labor, Department of Education, or Office of Civil Rights.

Title IX Discrimination Complaint Form

Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination in education on the basis of sex. For a full definition, please review the university's published Title IX policies and procedures.
