How to Find Articles

You can find articles by using OneVU or you can access one of our many databases geared towards general or specific subjects. A great way to start your research is to go to “Databases A-Z” and choose a general database like “Academic Search Premier”. You can also choose a specialty database, which are sorted by college. You’ll find databases for your program under “Social Science, Performing Arts and Communication” located on our Find Articles page. Below is a search example using Academic Search Premier.

Recommended Databases

ABC-CLIO: Collection of 40 reference eBooks on topics including: history, popular culture, health, psychology, religion, and current events.

Academic Search Premier: A great starting point for any type of research. Access to 3,900 full-text peer reviewed journals and 4,600 total full text journals on topics from all academic disciplines.

Credo Reference: Full-text articles from nearly 800 reference eBooks.

eBooks on EBSCOhost: Collection of over 9,000 eBooks.

Films on Demand: The leading source of web-based digital video delivery service for all academic, vocational, and life-skills topics.

Gale Virtual Reference Library: Collection of Reference eBooks.

ProQuest Research Library: A good starting point for research on any topic.

Social Sciences Full Text: Provides sources covering a wide array of subjects, including addiction studies, ethics, public welfare, urban studies and more. Covering the latest concepts, theories and methods from both applied and theoretical aspects of the social sciences, this full-text resource provides access to the most important English-language social science journals.
