How to Find Articles

You can find articles by using OneVU or you can access one of our many databases geared towards general or specific subjects. A great way to start your research is to go to “Databases A-Z” and choose a general database like “Academic Search Premier”. You can also choose a specialty database, which are sorted by college. You’ll find databases for your program under “Health Science & Human Performance” located on our Find Articles page. Below is a search example using Academic Search Premier.

Recommended Databases

Academic Search Premier: Access to 3,900 multidisciplinary full-text peer reviewed journals and 4,600 total full text journals on topics from all academic disciplines.

BioMed Central: Includes 220 open access, online, peer-reviewed journals covering all areas of biology and medicine.

Biomedical Reference Collection-Basic: Access to over 100 full-text peer reviewed journals on topics like clinical medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, preclinical sciences, and the health care system.

CINAHL Plus with Full Text: Cumulative Index to Nursing & Allied Health Literature including access to 770 full-text journals, 275 books and monographs, evidence-based care sheets, quick lessons, and more.

Health Business FullTEXT: 130 publications covering topics such as staffing, health care regulation, health care facilities management, marketing, finance, and more.

Health Reference Center Academic: Access to 1,700 full-text sources and hundreds of videos demonstrating medical procedures and live surgeries.

Nursing Resource Center with Nursing and Allied Health Collection: Designed for nursing students, brings together disease and drug overview, care plans, relevant journal results, and animated anatomy and physiology diagrams to complement core texts.
