How to Find Articles

You can find articles by using OneVU or you can access one of our many databases geared towards general or specific subjects. A great way to start your research is to go to “Databases A-Z” and choose a general database like “Academic Search Premier”. You can also choose a specialty database, which are sorted by college. You’ll find databases for your program under “Humanities Databases” located on our Find Articles page. Below is a search example using Academic Search Premier.

Recommended Databases

Academic Search Premier: A great starting point for any type of research. Access to 3,900 full-text peer reviewed journals and 4,600 full text journals on topics from all academic disciplines.

Credo Reference: Full-text articles from nearly 800 reference eBooks on topics including: art, language, psychology, social sciences, biographies, geography, religion, history, and literature.

Gale Virtual Reference Library: Collection of Reference eBooks on topics including: the arts, biographies, business, education, environment, history, law, literature, medicine, multicultural studies, nation & world, religion, social sciences, science, and technology

Opposing Viewpoints in Context: Access more than 14,000 pro/con essays, over 5,000 topic overviews, 5 million periodical articles, 6,000 statistical tables, charts, and graphs. Also includes images, podcasts, and court case overviews.

Points of View Reference Center: Containing resources that present multiple sides of an issue, this database provides rich content that can help students assess and develop persuasive arguments and essays, better understand controversial issues and develop analytical thinking skills.

ProQuest Research Library: A good starting point for research on any topic. Provides access to over 3,600 full-text journals on topics including: the arts, business, education, health and medical, humanities, law, military, multicultural studies, psychology, sciences, social sciences, and women’s studies.
