This form is being requested because you answered on your 2018-2019 FAFSA you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you. However, the total amount of income and resources reported on your FAFSA does not support your answer. You must complete this form in order to resolve your conflicting information.

Provide a response in each section below as it applies to you, the student, to show how you are supporting your child(ren) by more than 50%.

If any item does not apply, enter "N/A" for Not Applicable, or enter $0 for the Amount received. Enter yearly amounts for each.

A. Child support received for your children included in your household. Please list each year separately.
Do not include children for whom you receive foster/adoption payments.
Do not include amounts court-ordered to be paid to you but not actually received.

B. Additional information: So that we can fully understand your financial situation, please provide below information about any other resources or benefits, and the amounts received by the student and any members of the student's household. This may include items that were not required to be reported on the FAFSA. Include such things as federal and state student aid (including loans), veteran education benefits, military housing, Earned Income Credit, Additional Child Tax Credit, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), untaxed Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Workforce Investment Act (WIA) educational benefits, combat pay, etc.
